MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT : Intelligence on Communist China

REFERENCE : Attached Memo to DD/I from
DCI China Coordinator

1. In accordance with the third paragraph of General Reynolds' memorandum, will you please furnish this Office with the number of professional employees who were on duty full time on the Communist China target as of 1 Jan. 1964, 1965 and 1966. "Full time" should include any individual giving more than 50% of his time to this effort.

2. Where there has been a decrease in the 1966 on-duty figure from the 1964 figure an explanation should be included. Also we would like comments as to the adequacy of your present personnel resources full time on Communist China in comparison to the material currently available for exploitation. Please take into consideration in the comments on adequacy those new positions you may have received in the FY '66 supplemental budget request.

3. With respect to the request for projected personnel needs, I believe the professional requirements set forth in the Long Range Plan for the Years 1965 thru 1970 can be used. Your figures were, 1966:
1967:
1968:
1969:
1970:

Will you examine these figures again and confirm their correctness or readjust them as you feel necessary.
